Summer Camp Update

Our Junior I Camp numbers climbed slightly as we had 92 campers with us as Evangelist Timothy Silcott shared from God's Word. Praise the Lord for lots of counselors! We had 14 cabins with most cabins having a 1-6 ratio. Along with the other decisions made, over 30 young people came forward to say they wanted to be baptized.

Our Teen camp numbers went up by 22 from 2009 as we welcomed 144 campers. Youth Pastor Jason Blunk did a great job communicating with the Teens.

FALL RETREATS

This Fall we are pleased to have Dr. & Mrs. Jim Vogel with us for our Retreats. The Vogels have been married 32 years and have 5 children. Dr. Vogel, an author and a pastor for over 30 years, is currently the Associate National Representative for the GARBC.

Jim's theme for the retreat is " 'Mythbusters' – Biblical truths about some of the dumb things we Christian men believe." Due to his speaking schedule, we will have the Men's Retreat October 15-16. Western Avenue Baptist Church (Brawley) will be providing the music.

Our Ladies Fall Retreat is October 22-23 and will feature popular ladies conference speaker, Jeannie Vogel. Jeannie's topic is "3 Keys to Finding Fulfillment in Life - Lessons from the Life of Moses." Trinity Baptist Church (Pasadena) will be hosting the Retreat. Participants are encouraged to bring donations for the silent auction.

Each Retreat is $65.00 ($5.00 off when paid in full a week in advance.) Participants traveling long distances are welcome to come out Thursday evening and stay at the Ranch at no additional charge. However, registrations are a MUST. Send the enclosed registration form and a check, or register online at www.vranch.org and pay by credit card, by calling the Ranch office.

FROM THE DIRECTORS DESK :

by Paul Cayot

Although our summer usage from Rental groups was down this year, our own summer camp attendance grew. We have seen God's hand in many ways around the camp using donations of time, money and materials, He has remained faithful.

Volunteers helped to build a new recycling shed next to the trash dumpster before the start of camp. Our W.E.S.T. Week staff helped pour 14 yards of concrete to take the sidewalk on Olive Tree Lane around the volleyball courts. Two weeks later we poured a second 14 yards. The concrete pump owner donated his time and equipment for both jobs.

Along with your designated gifts and funds given in memory of my father, Ward Cayot, we now have new energy efficient central air conditioning units in First Aide, Trail Master and Wagon Wheel. Please see our website for details of other units that could use an upgrade. www.vranch.org.

Evangelist Timothy Silcott taught the Junior High students during the morning sessions. Praise the Lord for over 23 decisions that week of camp!

Junior II camp was down to a total of 40 campers just two days before camp, but we added another 13 prior to the start of camp to end up with 53 campers. Once again Evangelist Timothy Silcott and his family presented the messages. Music at both Junior Camps was led by Joseph Garcia (and friends).

Francine Morales used her creative talents to produce a high quality program with very creative games. It was good to see many other former campers and staff members involved in the program as kitchen, maintenance and recreation staff as well as a number who served as counselors. The music team from Faith Calvary Baptist was a huge blessing as they helped with the serving and clean-up in the kitchen during Teen Week.

INVESTING IN THE FUTURE

It was a blessing to have many of our former campers serve as counselors and adult staff again this year. God used Victory Ranch in the lives of these individuals and they wanted to give back to this ministry by investing in the next generation. Here is a list of former campers here this summer

Merz, Heather Robles, Karen Roseberry, Adam Sanchez, Jonathan Sibyan, Josiah Sibyan, Alesa (Ramseyer) Shifflett, and Amy Valentine.

Perhaps God has used Victory Ranch in your life through the years and you would like to invest back into this ministry. Any gift, large or small, reduces our expenses and enables us to keep our rates affordable for our campers. Thank you for prayerfully considering helping this ministry. Victory Ranch is a 501(c)(3) non-profit organization.

SING SCHEDULE

Our next Singspiration is scheduled for Sunday night October 10th at First Baptist Church of Wilmington. The church is located on the corner of Broad and Pacific Coast Highway.
